

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS Solicitation No. RSU-2024-02-009 ABC: PhP675,000.00

Negotiated Procurement of Educational Touring Services for the College of Engineering and Technology (Mechanical Engineering Department) of Romblon State University

ITEM NO.	UNIT	ITEM DESCRIPTION	QTY	STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE
		<ul> <li>5-Day Educational Tour Package (Batangas, Rizal, Quezon City, Bulacan, and Pampanga)</li> <li>1. PARTICIPANTS</li> <li>Total number of students: 45 students <ul> <li>a. 45 Students with 2 Free of Charge faculty chaperone</li> <li>*schedule is upon the advice of the end user</li> </ul> </li> <li>2. TRANSPORTATION <ul> <li>a. Round-trip air-conditioned accommodation from Odiongan to Batangas and vice versa;</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
1	pax	<ul> <li>b. DOT-accredited air-conditioned and well-sanitized (1) 49-pax passenger capacity tourist bus;</li> <li>c. DOT-accredited tourist drivers and licensed tour guides.</li> <li>Note: <ul> <li>Should the vehicle develop any mechanical fault in transit, the tour agency must find a replacement as soon as possible</li> <li>Touring agency must ensure the safety of all passengers all the time</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	45
		<ul> <li>3. ACCOMMODATION <ul> <li>A quadruple room or better accommodation in</li> <li>Metro Manila shall have: <ul> <li>a. Air-conditioned rooms with with a set of beddings, towels, and toiletries;</li> <li>b. Separate rooms for male and female students and provide beds as per standard requirements;</li> <li>c. 24/7 house guard, dining area, lounge for recreation, purified drinking stations, Wi-Fi, CCTV Cameras, accessible to malls and hospitals, and TV.</li> </ul> </li> </ul></li></ul>
		<ol> <li>TRAVEL SAFETY KITS         <ul> <li>a. Will provide safety kits or equipment PPEs for plants requiring it (Vest, Hard hat, face masks, goggles, earplugs, gloves, etc.)</li> </ul> </li> </ol>

<ul> <li>b. First aid kit for the whole group on board for each tour vehicle throughout the trip with essential medicines/over-the-counter medicines (antacid for upset stomach, headache, antihistamine for allergies, diarrhea, motion sickness, fever, pain reliever, etc.)</li> <li>c. Assist in case of health emergency by providing a list of emergency contact</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>5. TOUR COORDINATION <ul> <li>a. Securing Permits/Letter of Request and Acknowledgement from LGUs, in compliance with CMO 63 s.2017, Provision of entrance fees, if possible, Certificate of Participation/Attendance, follow-ups, and confirmation of plant/company visits will be provided, including orientation about industry practices.</li> <li>b. In case the companies/plants are not available, then similar places will be proposed subject to the approval of the end-user pursuant to pertinent CHED issuances.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
6. TRAVEL INSURANCE Comprehensive insurance coverage of not less than one hundred thousand pesos (PhP100,000.00) per participant.
7. MEALS AND BEVERAGES Meals and beverages for all participants for the whole duration of the trip (breakfast, lunch, AM/PM snacks, and dinner)
<ul> <li>Note:</li> <li>Must be willing to accommodate food restrictions.</li> <li>The finalized meal set/menu will be prepared by the end-user subject to the approval of the Health Services Unit</li> </ul>
<ol> <li>8. GIVEAWAYS         <ul> <li>a. A gift/token will be provided for the visited company, subject to the approval of the end-user.</li> </ul> </li> </ol>
<ul> <li>9. TOUR SIGNAGES, BANNER, AND DOCUMENTATION <ul> <li>a. Streamers will be provided. Design and dimension are subject to the approval of the end-user.</li> <li>b. Photo and video documentation.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
ITINERARY - Interactive/ experiential tours and activities for the whole group (please see the attached itinerary)
- Provision in case of occurrence of Typhoon and

ROMBLON STATE UNIVERSITY BIDS AND AWARDS COMMITTEE Community Outreach Center, RSU-Main Campus, Liwanag, Odiongan, Rombion 5505 Telephone: (042) 567-5952 Email: bac@rsu.edu.ph Website: rsu.edu.ph

TÜVRheinland CENTITED

<ul> <li>other fortuitous events:</li> <li>If a typhon and other fortuitous events occur before the educational tour schedule, the touring services may offer flexibility in the field trip itinerary, allowing for adjustments or rescheduling of activities as needed to accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Assess the seventy of the typhon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Assess the seventy of the typhon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first ald kins, and other mecessities and horel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhono and other fortuitous event on their way back to the Univers</li></ul>		_
<ul> <li>before the educational tour schedule, the touring services may offer flexibility in the field trip itinerary, allowing for adjustments or rescheduling of activities as needed to accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and the faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Assess the sevenity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to muscums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the end-user, midful of the objectives of the ducational four.</li> </ul></li></ul>	other fortuitous events:
<ul> <li>before the educational tour schedule, the touring services may offer flexibility in the field trip itinerary, allowing for adjustments or rescheduling of activities as needed to accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and the faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Assess the sevenity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to muscums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the end-user, midful of the objectives of the ducational four.</li> </ul></li></ul>	• If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur
<ul> <li>itinerary, allowing for adjustments or rescheduling of activities as needed to accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide cessential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and first aid kits, and other necessities and first aid kits, and other necessities and hole accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative induity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitus event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide relovant for the duration of the relevant of the instage, and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of the instage, and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul>	before the educational tour schedule, the touring
<ul> <li>itinerary, allowing for adjustments or rescheduling of activities as needed to accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide cessential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and first aid kits, and other necessities and first aid kits, and other necessities and hole accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative induity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitus event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide relovant for the duration of the relevant of the instage, and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of the instage, and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>rescheduling of activities as needed to accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Assess the seventy of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Assess the seventy of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational conters, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning expreinces related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide resolut prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> </ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>accommodate the weather conditions to ensure the safety of everyone involved, subject to the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance; <ul> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to muscums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outfoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> </ul> </li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide rshould prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	rescheduling of activities as needed to
<ul> <li>approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locational less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide node the offutious event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide node to fortuice their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> </ul></li></ul>
<ul> <li>approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locational less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide node the offutious event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide node to fortuice their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> </ul></li></ul>	the safety of everyone involved, subject to the <ul> <li>objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other neccessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> </ul> </li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide researy support. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>If a typhoon and other fortuitous events occur anytime during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> </ul> </li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li></ul>
<ul> <li>anytine during educational tours, the touring services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> </ul> </li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide recessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li></ul>
<ul> <li>services provider should take immediate action to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul></li></ul>	· · ·
<ul> <li>to ensure the safety and well-being of the students and faculty. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor reuces. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the educational Tour.</li> </ul> </li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of the rstay; and</li> <li>Provide recess to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>students and faculty. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the educational Tour.</li> </ul> </li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li></ul>
<ul> <li>Assess the severity of the typhoon and its potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide recessary support. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Provide recessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Provide recess to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>potential impact on the safety of the students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of the stat, and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>students and the faculty. This includes monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	5 01
<ul> <li>monitoring weather reports and consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>consulting with local authorities for updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>updates and guidance;</li> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refershments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	.
<ul> <li>Device alternative plans that prioritize indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J J
<ul> <li>indoor activities or locations less affected by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>by the typhoon. This could include visits to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>to museums, indoor educational centers, or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>or workshops;</li> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>I outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhonon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	by the typhoon. This could include visits
<ul> <li>Arrange educational workshops or presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhonon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	to museums, indoor educational centers,
<ul> <li>presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	or workshops;
<ul> <li>presentations at the accommodation or alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide recessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Arrange educational workshops or</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>alternative indoor venues. This can still provide valuable learning experiences related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	presentations at the accommodation or
<ul> <li>related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	alternative indoor venues. This can still
<ul> <li>related to the objectives of the tour;</li> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	provide valuable learning experiences
<ul> <li>If outdoor excursions are not possible, consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>consider arranging virtual tours of relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provide should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>relevant establishments or inviting guest speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>speakers to provide insights and expertise remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>remotely;</li> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	8.8
<ul> <li>Provide essential supplies such as food, water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>water, and first aid kits, and other necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>necessities and hotel accommodations covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>covered within the package offered by them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>them; and</li> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Any alternative activity shall be implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>implemented only after the approval of the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>the end-user, mindful of the objectives of the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	5
<ul> <li>the Educational Tour.</li> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to: <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>If students and faculty are stranded due to a typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul> typhoon and other fortuitous event on their way back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:
<ul> <li>back to the University, the touring services provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
<ul> <li>provider should prioritize their well-being and provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:         <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	01 U
<ul> <li>provide necessary support. Specifically, they have to:</li> <li>o Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>o Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul>
have to: • Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and • Provide access to medical assistance or	provider should prioritize their well-being and have to: • Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and • Provide access to medical assistance or <ul> <li>Provide free meals and refreshments for the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>the duration of their stay; and</li> <li>o Provide access to medical assistance or</li> </ul>
• Provide access to medical assistance or

	<ul> <li>Note:</li> <li>Tour activities and dates are subject to change based on recommendations of the end-user.</li> <li>The final itinerary should be approved by the end-user and must adhere to existing health and safety protocols.</li> <li>No single use plastic in any of the activities</li> </ul>
TOTAL		45

Name and Signature of the Bidder/Authorized Representative

Name of the Company